About the Department

Established in 1994, the Department of English offers B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. programmes in English Literature. The Curriculum includes British, American, Indian, and World Literature, along with Language Studies, Media, Journalism, Translation, and Creative Writing. The Department nurtures communication skills, critical thinking, ethical values, and cultural awareness through quality teaching, research, and literary engagement.

About the Programme

The Programme seeks to bring together four interconnected dimensions of contemporary education: Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS), Emerging Digital Tools, Eco-consciousness, and Personal and Social Well-being. Participants will explore how Indian traditions of knowledge, values, storytelling, ethics, mindfulness, ecology, and holistic living can enrich English language teaching and learning. The integration of IKS will be approached critically and meaningfully, connecting traditional knowledge with contemporary contexts rather than treating it as an isolated historical content.
