(5) I) Core Objective of EWCDT

The Ministry of Women and Child Development aims to drive holistic development for women and children across India by focusing on four pillar objectives:

- Women Empowerment: Strengthening women socially, legally, and economically to ensure they are self-reliant.
- Malnutrition-Free Childhood: Ensuring proper healthcare and nutrition for infants, young children, and expectant mothers.
- Safety & Protection: Preventing domestic violence, a buse, exploitation, and human trafficking.

Gender Equality: Bridging the gender gap in education, health, and social status.

(6) II) The 3 Pillar Missions (Umbrella Frameworks)

The Government of India operates its major WCD initiatives through three streamlined umbrella missions:

a) Mission Saksham Anganwadi & Poshan 2.0

This mission targets the nutritional health of children, adolescent girls, and pregnant/lactating mothers to combat malnutrition.

Anganwadi Services: Providing early childhood pre-school education and immunization tracking.

Nutritional Support: Offering Supplementary Nutrition to curb stunting, wasting, and an emiating in vulnerable groups.

b) Mission Shak (Safety & Empowerment of Women)

This mission is divided into two sub-components to address both protection and growth:

- 'Sambal' (Safety & Security): Includes the One Stop Centre (OSC) initiative, which provides emergency medical, legal, and psychological help to women facing violence under one roof. It also drives the Beti Bachao Beti Padhao campaign.
- 'Samarthya' (Empowerment): Features the Pradhan Mantri Matru Vandana Yojana (PMMVY), which provides direct cash benefits to pregnant women to compensate for wage loss. It also manages Palna (National Crèche Scheme) for the children of working mothers.

c) Mission Vatsalya (Child Protection Services)

This framework focuses on child welfare, especially for children in difficult circumstances, orphans, and runaways.

Child Care Institutions (CCIs): Providing safe shelter, food, and education to children in need of care.

Rehabilitation: Ensuring legal compliance and psychological counseling under the Juvenile Justice Act.

III) COMPREHENSIVE HEALTHCARE & NUTRITIONAL SECURITY

Maternal Health Systems: Making high-quality, continuous prenatal, secure delivery, and postpartum clinical solutions completely accessible to lower maternal mortality.
Nutritional Intervention: Formulating targeted systemic programs to manage widespread anemia and acute malnutrition in adolescent girls and nursing mothers.
Hygiene Infrastructure: Providing uninterrupted clean water resources and dignified Menstrual Hygiene Management (MHM) frameworks across public and educational institutions.

IV) SOCIAL PROTECTIONS & LEGAL INFRASTRUCTURE

Eradicating Gender Violence: Institutionalizing rigorous legal enforcement, rapid single-window response networks, and protection shelters against all violence variants.

Legal Literacy Campaigns: Educating women comprehensively regarding land ownership inheritances, marital jurisprudence, and corporate workplace protection guidelines.

Eliminating Harmful Norms: Partnering closely with regional leadership to structurally eliminate social malice like child marriages and institutional discrimination.

V) SOCIAL PROTECTIONS & LEGAL INFRASTRUCTURE

Grassroots Institutional Presence: Reserving legislative seats and expanding representations across municipal, regional, and national policymaking committees.

Socio-Economic Collectives: Accelerating the growth of community Self-Help Groups (SHGs) to amplify independent grassroots leadership and community development.

VI) Economic Empowerment

Economic self-reliance is the backbone of women's development. It focuses on closing the gender gap in the workforce and financial sectors.

Equal Pay and Fair Wages: Ensuring equal remuneration for work of equal value and eliminating the gender pay gap.

Financial Literacy & Inclusion: Providing women access to banking, microfinance, loans, and savings accounts to foster entrepreneurship.

Skill Development & Vocational Training: Equipping women with technical, digital, and managerial skills to excel in modern job markets.

Support for Unorganized Sectors: Recognizing and protecting the rights of women in informal labour agriculture, and domestic work.

VII) Education and Literacy

Education is the most powerful tool for changing a woman's life trajectory and breaking the cycle of poverty.

Universal Access to Primary and Secondary Education: Ensuring girl children have safe access to quality schooling.

STEM Promotion: Encouraging girls and women to pursue fields in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics.

Adult Literacy Programs: Providing functional literacy and life skills to adult women who missed formal schooling.

Digital Literacy: Teaching women how to navigate internet-based technologies, online banking, and digital communication safely.

VIII) Health, Nutrition, and Well-being

A development model cannot succeed without addressing the specific biological and systemic health needs of women throughout their life cycle.

Maternal and Reproductive Health: Providing safe prenatal, delivery, and postnatal care to reduce maternal mortality rates.

Nutritional Security: Addressing widespread issues like anemia and malnutrition, particularly in adolescent girls and pregnant/lactating mothers.

Mental Health Support: Creating accessible psychological support systems for women dealing with domestic stress, postpartum depression, or societal trauma.

Sanitation and Hygiene: Ensuring access to clean water and menstrual hygiene management (MHM) facilities.

IX) Social Safety and Legal Rights

True development requires an environment where women can live, work, and move freely without fear of violence or discrimination.

Eradication of Gender-Based Violence: Implementing strict laws and support systems (like helplines and shelters) against domestic violence, sexual harassment, and human trafficking.

Legal Awareness (Know Your Rights): Educating women on laws regarding property inheritance, marriage, divorce, alimony, and workplace rights.

Combating Harmful Practices: Working at the community level to eradicate child marriage, female genital mutilation (FGM), and female foeticide.

X) Political Participation and Leadership

Women must not just be beneficiaries of development; they must be the architects of it.

Representation in Governance: Implementing quotas or encouraging women's representation in local bodies, parliaments, and policymaking committees.

Community Leadership: Strengthening grassroots women's groups, such as Self-Help Groups (SHGs) and non-governmental organizations (NGOs), to drive local change.

XI) Corporate Leadership: Breaking the "glass ceiling" to place more women in executive and board-level positions

6) About Child Development

I) Child Development focuses on the holistic growth and well-being of children by ensuring their physical, mental, emotional, social, and educational development. The mission aims to create a safe, healthy, and supportive environment where every child can achieve their full potential.

II) Objectives of Child Development

Promote child health and nutrition

Support early childhood care and education

Ensure physical, mental, and emotional development

Protect the rights and welfare of children

Provide a safe and nurturing environment

Improve access to essential services for disadvantaged children

III) Key Functions

Implement child welfare and development programs

Promote health, nutrition, and education initiatives

Create awareness among parents and communities

Monitor children's growth and developmental progress

Support child protection and safeguarding measures

Strengthen community participation in child development activities

However, applicants should keep checking the above website for latest updates.

D. Applicants reporting late for online examination : Applicants reporting late for online examination i.e. after the reporting time specified on the call letter for Examination will not be permitted to take the examination. The reporting time mentioned on the call letter is prior to the Start time of the test. Though the duration of the examination is 2 hours, applicants may be required to be at the venue for about 4 hours including the time required for completion of various formalities such as verification and collection of various requisite documents, logging in and briefing of instructions for Computer Based Test (CBT) i.e. Online Test.

The possibility for occurrences of some problem in administration of the examination cannot be ruled out completely which may impact test delivery and/or result from being generated. In that event, every effort will be made to rectify the problem, which may include movement of candidate, delay in test. Conduct of re-examination is at the absolute discretion of test conducting body. Candidates will not have any claim for re-test. Candidates not willing to move or not willing to participate in the delayed process of test delivery shall be summarily rejected from the process.

If the examination is held in more than one session, the scores across various sessions will be equated to adjust for slight differences in difficulty level of different test batteries used across sessions. More than one session are required if the nodes capacity is less or some technical disruption takes place at any center or for any applicant.

In order to overcome the possibility of applicants seeking help of other applicants during the online examination, an analysis of the responses (answers) of individual applicants with those of other applicants in the online examination to detect patterns of similarity of right and wrong answers will be done. On the basis of such an analysis, it is inferred/concluded that the responses have been shared and scores obtained are not genuine/valid, the Empower for Women & child Development Unit reserves the right to cancel the candidature of the concerned applicant and the result of such applicants (disqualified) will be withheld. Hence the applicants are advised in their own interests not to indulge in any unfair practice/ malpractice in the examination.

Instances for providing incorrect information and/or process violation by an applicant detected at any stage of the selection process will lead of disqualification of the applicant from the selection process and he/she will not be allowed to appear in any recruitment process of the organization in the future. If such instances go undetected during the current selection process but are detected subsequently, such disqualification will take place with retrospective effect.

- i) Number of questions answered correctly by a candidate in each objective test is considered for arriving at the Corrected Score.
- ii) The Corrected Scores obtained by a candidate are made equivalent to take care of the minor difference in difficulty level, if any, in each of the objective tests held in different sessions to arrive at the Equated Scores.
