ABOUT INDIAN COUNCIL OF SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH

The Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR), established in 1969 under the Ministry of Education, Government of India, is the apex body for promoting research in the social sciences and humanities. Through research grants, fellowships, internships, publications, capacity-building programmes, and national and international collaborations, ICSSR supports high-quality research and contributes to evidence-based policymaking and national development. Since its inception, ICSSR has played a vital role in strengthening research capacity through grants, fellowships, projects, and training in research methodologies. It has significantly contributed to social science, humanities, and cultural research, fostering knowledge that supports policy development and societal progress. Aligned with the vision of Viksit Bharat 2047 and the National Education Policy (2020), ICSSR promotes research excellence while striving to make social research equitable, inclusive, socially relevant, and globally competitive.

CONCEPT NOTE

The Goods and Services Tax (GST), introduced in India on 1st July 2017, is one of the most important fiscal reforms since Independence. By integrating multiple central and state indirect taxes into a single system, GST has simplified the tax structure, improved transparency, and supported the formalisation of the economy. However, the experience of the past eight years has also revealed challenges such as compliance complexity, revenue instability, and difficulties faced by small enterprises. The proposed Next-Generation GST Reforms (2025) aim to address these issues through greater digital integration, simplified procedures, and improved Centre-State coordination. These reforms align with the goals of Atmanirbhar Bharat and Viksit Bharat 2047, with increased use of technologies such as artificial intelligence and data analytics. This seminar seeks to assess the socio-economic impact of GST, focusing on inclusiveness, fiscal federalism, and sustainability, while generating policy insights for future tax reforms.
